

Carolinas Communication Association
Conference Resolutions Document
September 30, 2023

Whereas John McArthur has served this organization by serving as its Executive Director for this past year in a professional and competent manner, be it resolved that the Carolinas Communication Association express its gratitude to John McArthur for his service.

Whereas Jason Munsell has served this organization by serving as its President for this past year in a professional and competent manner, be it resolved that the Carolinas Communication Association express its gratitude to Jason Munsell for his service.

Whereas Jenni Simon has served this organization by serving as its Vice President for this past year in a professional and competent manner, be it resolved that the Carolinas Communication Association express its gratitude to Jenni Simon for her service.

Whereas Camille Lewis has served this organization by serving as its Second Vice President for this past year in a professional and competent manner, be it resolved that the Carolinas Communication Association express its gratitude to Camille Lewis for her service.

Whereas Michelle Garland has served this organization by serving as its Secretary for this past year in a professional and competent manner, be it resolved that the Carolinas Communication Association express its gratitude to Michelle Garland for her service.

Whereas John Edwards has served this organization by serving as its Journal Editor for this past year in a professional and competent manner, be it resolved that the Carolinas Communication Association express its gratitude to John Edwards for his service.

Whereas Carol Leeman has served this organization by serving as its Treasurer for this past year in a professional and competent manner, be it resolved that the Carolinas Communication Association express its gratitude to Carol Leeman for her service.

Whereas Elena Martinez-Vidal has served this organization by serving as its Web Manager for this past year in a professional and competent manner, be it resolved that the Carolinas Communication Association express its gratitude to Elena Martinez-Vidal for her service.

Whereas Peter Gloviczki has served this organization by serving as its Immediate Past President for this past year in a professional and competent manner, be it resolved that the Carolinas Communication Association express its gratitude to Peter Gloviczki for her service.

Whereas Savannah Harrison has served this organization by serving as an Intern for conference planning and implementation for this past year in a professional and competent manner, be it resolved that the Carolinas Communication Association express its gratitude to Savannah Harrison for her service.

Be it further resolved that the Secretary of the Association be directed to convey these resolutions to the appropriate administrators at their respective institutions.